

PARTICIPATION IN TRIPURA KRISHI UNNATI MELA

01-03 2019

The College of Fisheries, Central Agricultural University (Imphal), Lembucherra Tripura, participated in the Tripura Krishi Unnati Mela-2019 organized by ICAR Research Complex for North Eastern Regions Tripura Centre, Lembucherra Tripura from 01st to 03rd March, 2019. The college placed its stall with display of extension exhibits like flex on fish production and processing technologies, folders on different technologies in local language, indigenous fishing devices, value added fish products, live Wolffia, floating feed etc. Programme was inaugurated by Hon' ble Governor of Tripura Prof. Kaptan Singh Solanki, Shri Sunil Kumar General Manager, NABARD, Agartala, Dr. B.K. Kanpal, Joint Director of organizing institute . Honorable Governor visited the stall of COF Lembucherra wherein various activities of the fisheries development and extension which undertaken by the college were explained to him. Joint Director of ICAR applauded CAU's roles in guiding the professionals in academics as well as the farming community.

Visit of Hon'ble Governor of Tripura in the College Stall

In college stall fish pickle and CAU fish Kurkure (CAU's Maach Mochhe) was kept for sale . Dr. P. K. Pandey, Dean, COF, Lembucherra, faculties of the college and SMS of new KVK Sepahijala participated in technical sessions, farmer's-scientist interactions, and chairing-co-chairing various competitions among students/farmers/NGO's and valedictory function etc. Dr. A.D Upadhyay as a coordinator and other faculties and staff and staff of KVK Sepahijala rendered their services in showcasing different ongoing development/research activities of this institute in the College of Fisheries Stall. The mela registered a total footfall by more than 1000 farmers.

