

Press note

College Week 2018 kicks off at College of Fisheries, Tripura

Agartala, the 28th September 2018

The Annual College Week 2018 of CoF was inaugurated at its campus at Lembucherra, Tripura yesterday on 27th September, 2018. The seven days celebration which kicks off with colors and flares intends to bring the entire students of the college into various extra-co curricular competitions in the field of sports, literary and cultural events. The programme started with a march-past procession by the participating teams of the college followed by flag hoisting and an oath taking ceremony. Shri Mantu Debnath, Arjuna Awardee graced the programme as the Chief Guest amidst the presence of the Dean, College of Fisheries, Dr. P.K. Pandey, faculty members, staff, students and scholars of the college. The dean welcomed the dignitaries and other faculty, staff, students and scholars of the college, Dr. Pandey briefed the outstanding milestones the college has achieved at the national level and expressed his happiness over the hard work of the students in adding feather to the college as well as the university in the recently declared AIEEA-PG-2018 examination. He further urged the importance of various co-curricular activities off the classrooms in achieving a sound health and atmosphere. Further, Dr. R.K. Majumdar, Guide of the College Week 2018 gave a brief note on the various events that is organized during the seven days competition. Speaking on the occasion, Shri Debnath congratulated the college functionary for achieving a new height day after day and acknowledged the faculty and staff for creating a clean academic atmosphere in the campus. He expressed his overwhelmedness on being present among a congregation of successful institute and thanked Dr. Pandey for the uncountable contribution by the college to the state of Tripura. He urged the participating teams to give their best and show their hidden talents in the sports, literary and cultural arena as it is a very important aspect of successful life. To commemorate the celebration, winner of the march-past competition was handed over to Green house which was followed by final match of the football between Blue house and Green House which was played with great enthusiasm.

