

Report on the celebration of “Sarwatra Swachhta” on 25th September 2017 at the College of Fisheries, CAU (I), Lembucherra, Tripura

The College of Fisheries, CAU (I), Lembucherra, Tripura celebrated the “Sarwatra Swachhta” under the campaign of “Swachhata Hi Sewa” on 25th September, 2017 to mark the anniversary of Swachha Bharat Mission. At the very outset, faculty, staff members, students and scholars of the college had a mass gathering at the college main gate. To commemorate the occasion, the participants took a stand to clean two of the nearby local market viz. Lembucherra and Damdamia of Mohanpur block. The participants on arrival at the village had an interaction with the local members. With the assistance of the village members and local police, the participants first had a mass cleaning programme at Lembucherra market which is located 500 m on the northern side of the college. The area of market like vegetable shops, meat shop stalls, other vendor areas, main road, school compound, auto parking area and village roads were cleaned by the participants. Further, the team moved ahead to another market place, Damdamia market located 500 m on southern side of the college. There the participants took part in cleaning the main market area, roads, drainage and fish stalls. The programme was participated by 70 faculty, staff and scholars, apart from 60 students (B.F.Sc. 4th year, M.F.Sc. and Ph.D.) with great enthusiasm during the 2 hours programme from 10:30 am to 12:30 pm. The B.F.Sc. 1st, 2nd and 3rd year students could not participate in the said programme on account of ongoing mid-term examinations. The programme was coordinated by Dr. S. Khogen Singh, SWO, College of Fisheries, CAU (I), Tripura.
