College of Fisheries, Tripura bags top positions at ICAR-JRF Exam

Agartala, the 28th September 2018

The College of Fisheries, Lembucherra, Tripura under the Central Agricultural University (Imphal) once again brought laurel to the university by bagging top positions at the recently declared AIEEA-PG-2018 examination for admission to various universities for postgraduate programme in fisheries disciplines. The college stands out distinctly as top performer among all fisheries colleges in the country which was conducted by Indian Council of Agricultural Research, New Delhi, witnessing four ranks within all India top 10. Not more than one student from any other fisheries college of the country could find a place in top 10 positions. of Tripura secured 2nd rank, whereas three other students, Ms. Abipsha Dey (Tripura), Mr. Shubam Roy (Tripura) and Mr. Angom Baleshwor Singh (Manipur) stood 6th, 8th and 9th rank overall respectively. Altogether, 19 students of the college appeared for the said examination held on 18th August, 2018 and the college achieved cent percent pass percentage. It is worth mentioning the legacy of the college in sending its students for PG programme to the country's premier institute, the ICAR-Central Institute of Fisheries Education, Mumbai and this year as many as 11 students will be admitted to the said institute. Earlier, during the year 2013 and 2016, the students of the college bagged 1st rank overall in the said examination. Appreciating the achievement, the Vice Chancellor of the University, Prof. M. Premjit Singh congratulated the successful students, faculty and staffs on their achievement and further appraised the very consistent performance of the college in various all India competitions. Mentioning the outstanding performance, the Dean of the college, Dr. Pramod Kumar Pandey expressed his heartfelt words of encouragement to the successful students for their career ahead and also thanked the competent faculty and staff members of the college for their sincere contribution. Recognizing the achievement, a felicitation programme of the successful students was also arranged in the presence of Shri. Mantu Debnath, Arjuna Awardee during the inaugural ceremony of the College Week 2018 held on 27th September, 2018.
